

LOAN ROUND-UP: TILLEY ON TARGET

Following James Tilley's goal out on loan for AFC Wimbledon in their win against Bradford City on Saturday, we take a deeper look at how our other Chairboys are getting on at their respective clubs.

Shamal George has been a regular between the sticks for St Mirren this season, making 34 appearances to date and winning the Scottish League Cup, as well as keeping a clean sheet in their recent triumph over league leaders Hearts.

James Berry has played 26 times for Chesterfield, scoring four times including an impressive finish in their win at Bristol Rovers two weeks ago, while Fin Back came off the bench for Colchester in their 4-1 demolition of Barnet on Saturday – his first win for the club since joining at the end of January.

Declan Skura was by all accounts Yeovil's standout performer as they went down to high-flying Carlisle at the weekend, having also caught the eye on his debut when the Glovers held National League leaders Rochdale to a draw.

Jaiden Bartolo has been getting regular action up front for AFC Totton, and Jack Matton collected his first win and clean sheet on loan at Hanwell Town, who defeated Bracknell on Saturday.

Academy left-back Arthur Gregory started for Bracknell in that game, with Jahiem Dotse on the bench as the pair develop their careers in senior football.

And Mekhi Savage scored his first goal for Walton & Hersham in their 6-2 victory over Basingstoke.

Christian Swaby has played every game for Aylesbury United since joining them on loan in January, and Chris Lutonadio has made two appearances for Marlow, who've had a couple of postponements due to the weather.
